CP- children's program

Activities at the Camp include boating, soccer, nature walks, arts and crafts, interest groups, etc. South Jetty beach and Honeyman State Park are close by, as is the town of Florence.

Children's Program: There will be program leaders for children, however, we will also need volunteers. Share the joy and spare the parents! Play time is an intergenerational activity.

Jr. Friends Program: There are special activities for the Junior Friends, as well as a separate yurt sleeping area. There will be two Junior Friends advisors.

Sleeping Accommodation Options:

The Lodge: Sleep on mattresses provided by the camp on the Lodge floor (heated, with indoor restrooms) .There is one bedroom with 4-5 beds in the Lodge for women. Showers are in a separate building outside.

"Adirondacks": Enclosed and screened, with 8 bunk beds, unheated with no electricity. Outhouses and cold running water nearby. There are also three unheated staff cabins (4 bunk beds) near the Staff Lodge. This is an appropriate space for a couple or family.

Camping: There are tent camping spaces and small parking lot for a few RVs.

Off-site Friends Homes: There are a few Friends locally who are offering hospitality for those who feel they need it. Please contact Sakre Edson (541) 902-9511 sakre@juno.com for more information and make a note on your registration.

What to Bring:

Warm sleeping bag or bedding, pillow, extra towels, personal stuff, flash light, warm clothes, outdoor/rain wear, games, toys, musical instruments, song books, etc.( Temperature range from upper 40's at night to the 70's in the day).
