CP = children's program

1- Pedro Sosa is the Immigrant rights program director for the west region for the American Friends Service Committee. At AFSC, he works to strengthen leadership and voices of immigrant communities, to build a strong national immigrant and refugee rights agenda. Born in Guatemala, Pedro worked for many years with community organizations in his home country and Mexico and moved to the United States in 1991. Co-founder of VOZ Workers Rights Education Project in Portland, former board member of Immigration Counseling Services, currently member of the Portland Immigrants' Rights coalition. Also Advocates for indigenous people displaced and Immigrants at the permanent forum of indigenous issues at the UN.

2- Rally for Immigrant Rights Sat, Oct 6th, 1:15 pm, meet at Methodist Church of Florence, 333 Kingwood Ave. This will be an interfaith march in support of ~reuniting families
~welcoming immigrants and refugees
~releasing immigrants and asylum seekers who are detained in Oregon's Sheridan FCI Prison and The Dalles Norcor Jail.

Feel free to bring beautiful, bold signs and banners, with expressions such as "Quakers Care," "Love Thy Neighbor," "Make Empathy Great Again," "Immigrants and Refugees WELCOME," "We are All Human Beings," "LOVE not hate MAKES AMERICA GREAT", "Reunite Immigrant Families," "Refugees Deserve Freedom Here," "Immigration is the American Way," "We are All Immigrants," "Release Detained Immigrants," "Practicing My Faith," etc.

Activities at the Camp include boating, soccer, nature walks, arts and crafts, interest groups, etc. South Jetty beach and Honeyman State Park are close by, as is the town of Florence.

Children's Program: There will be program leaders for children, however, we will also need volunteers. Share the joy and spare the parents! Play time is an intergenerational activity.

Jr. Friends Program: There are special activities for the Junior Friends, as well as a separate yurt sleeping area.

Sleeping Accommodation Options:

The Lodge — Sleep on mattresses provided by the camp on the Lodge floor (heated, with indoor restrooms). There is one bedroom with 4–5 beds in the Lodge for women. Showers are in a separate building outside.

"Adirondacks": Enclosed and screened, with 8 bunk beds, unheated with no electricity.

Outhouses and cold running water nearby. There are also three unheated staff cabins (4 bunk beds) near the Staff Lodge. This is an appropriate space for a couple or family.

Camping: There are tent camping spaces and a small parking lot for a few RVs.

Off site Friends homes: There are a few Friends locally who are offering hospitality for those who feel they need it. Please contact Sakre Edson (541) 902-9511 sakre@juno.com for more information and make a note on your registration.

What to Bring: Warm sleeping bag or bedding, pillow, extra towels, personal stuff, flash light, warm clothes, outdoor/rain wear, games, toys, musical instruments, song books, etc. (temperatures range from upper 40's at night to the 70's in the day).
