

WILLAMETTE QUARTERLY MEETING May 3-5, 2019

Theme: Finding Joy in an Ocean of Despair

Location: Multnomah Friends Meeting, 4312 SE Stark St, Portland

Registration deadline: April 22, 2019

The purposes of Willamette Quarterly Meeting include "to nurture the spiritual life of Friends of all ages and to provide fellowship within the Quarter;" "to encourage inter-visitation among the Monthly Meetings, Worship Groups, Preparatory Meetings and Isolated Friends;" and "to share State of Society Reports from the constituent groups at the Spring meeting."

You are invited to join us for:

- worship and worship sharing,
- fellowship over meals,
- interest groups (probable topics are climate issues, sanctuary and border issues, nuclear concerns, spiritual grounding, listening, Palestine/Israel, racial justice and the NPYM minute, FCNL, and the Innocence Project/prison reform),
- activities (probable: QiGong, labyrinth, table looms, park outing),
- excursions,
- service projects (Quaker Voluntary Service house, MMM garden), and Community Night,
- displays (Quaker books, card games and CDs on display and for sale, Central American displays, and artwork on the walls),
- State of Society reports at the Meeting for Worship for Business on Saturday.

If you or your children have art, books or other items you'd like to have displayed, let us know by April 22.

Bring your stories, poems, tricks, jokes, music, gymnastics, dance and anything else appropriate for Community Night!
