

Men, Hear the Call

Willamette Quarterly Meeting Men's Retreat

March 13-15th, 2015

Let's come together for a weekend of worship, relaxation, and sharing.

Big Bear Camp, in Walton OR

Cost will be $70/person

(scholarships available - check with registrar)

The Camp will provide all meals and snacks, except for Friday night.

This year's theme will center on

"Safety, Fear, & Spiritual Growth"

☛ Men approach and experience safety, risk, and growth in different ways. What can we say to each other about this? How can we respond when we've been hurt? How can we be responsible with our sisters and brothers who've been hurt? Between risk and growth there's probably a middle path. How do we figure it out?

Registration: Contact Bob Marvos at rmmarvos@gmail.com or 541-330-3937

Deadline for Registration: MARCH 5.

Cell phone reception is poor. There is a cell phone with an antenna connection on the site. If anyone needs to call out it is available to use.

What to bring:

- Flash light and reading light (Big Bear Camp is off the electric grid)
- Sleeping bag, pillow & normal toiletries.
- Towels, washcloths (hot water provided in beautiful showers)
- Camping pads if you have one (not enough mattresses yet)
- Slippers (concrete floors are cold)
- Work clothes, rubber boots, rain gear.

There will be a work project Sat afternoon.
Tools will be provided.

Suggested Readings:

Psalm 121

Psalm 23

Luke 9: 57-58

Matthew 10:34-39

The "last words" of James Nayler

(<http://www.strecorsoc.org/docs/naylor.html>) or in most Faith and Practice historical quotation sections.

Directions to Big Bear Camp:

- Take Hwy. 126 west from Eugene (toward Florence) about 30 miles to Walton
- turn right (north) on Nelson Mountain Rd.
- Continue 4.6 miles on pavement and gravel road.
- Camp is on the left with a yellow diamond bear road sign:
- The entry drive is about a half mile long with two gates that are typically open.

Big Bear Camp, 89444 Nelson Mountain Rd, Walton, OR 97490.